

MARRIES GIRL HE SAVED IN LIVERPOOL

Bride of A. E. F. Man Says He Proposed Day After Rescuing
Her From Assailant.

Stephen A. Rebeck of Cleveland, O., and Jennie Jones, twenty-two, a Liverpool, England, brunette with big brown eyes, today met at the Immigration Station on Ellis Island and, accompanied by friends, went to Madison Avenue Baptist Church to be married by the Rev. John P. Moore.

Rebeck, a young sculptor, went to France with the A. E. F., stopping in Liverpool on his way. He rescued Jennie Jones from a drunken rough who was strangling her. Rescuing her home, he was invited to call.

"He called next day," said Jennie, "and proposed. I saw him for the third time the day he left for France. He proposed again. We did not see one another again until I arrived yesterday on the Cedric—in the steerage because I could not get reservations—but we have corresponded, and last month some Cleveland friends brought my engagement ring."

Because she came in the steerage Miss Jones had to go to Ellis Island for examination. On her way over, she says, somebody else in the steerage stole her jewelry.

SUES FOR SHARE OF MILLION
Daughter to Contest Will of Mrs. Brasher of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Louise Marston Bain, No. 119 Henry Street, Brooklyn, filed in the Surrogate's Court, Brooklyn, today a notice that she intended to contest the will of her mother, Mrs. Martin M. Brasher, who died Feb. 16 at her home, No. 58 Seventh Avenue, Brooklyn, leaving an estate valued at $1,000,000. By a will dated Dec. 28, 1911, Mrs. Brasher cut off her daughter.

Mrs. Bain alleges the will was obtained "by fraud, misrepresentation and undue practices." The application for the contest is returnable March 4. Mrs. Bain and her mother had not spoken for some years, according to Frank Crowe, Mrs. Brasher's attorney of No. 139 Montague street.

Her 25th Conviction for Intoxication.

"God bless you," said Catharine Jack, 45 years old, as she threw a kiss to Magistrate Brown in the Bridge Plaza Court, today when he sentenced her to thirty days in the workhouse on a charge of intoxication. The records show that she has twenty-four other convictions on the same charge. Her residence was given as the Greenpoint hospital, where it was said she worked.

RADIO TO BRITAIN OPEN TO COMMERCE

Direct Messages Exchanged As Service Goes Back to Private Control—Coast Talks to Japan.

Direct commercial wireless communication between the United States and the British Isles opened at 12:01 o'clock this morning when trans-oceanic radio stations were relinquished by the Government to their private owners.

The first direct wireless message between New Brunswick, N. J., and the Carnarvon, Wales, stations, carried greetings from Edward J. Nally, President of the Radio Corporation of America, to American Director Images of the British Marconi Company, and the circuit was operated continuously with commercial business thereafter. It was closed at noon.

On the Pacific Coast the stations at Marshall, Columbia and San Francisco began communication at midnight with Kahuku and Kokoiki in Hawaii, and Sunabashi, Japan. It was announced.

SENATOR BANKHEAD DIES.

Veteran of Civil War Passes Away
In Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Senator Bankhead, Alabama, died today. He had been ill for some time.

Bankhead was a veteran of the Civil War, having served four years in the Confederate Army. He was wounded three times.

He entered the Senate in 1897, when he was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John T. Morgan. He was re-elected in 1911 and in 1913. He served in the House from the fiftieth to the fifty-ninth Congress inclusive.

Presentation of the Authoritative

SPRING FASHIONS for Miss 14 to 20

Every new and correct type of
Frocks, Suits, Coats—and Sports Togs

When planning this collection, we had two ideals—first, that the Fashions should be simple; always keeping in mind the simplicity followed by the greatest of all designers of fashions for Le Jeune Fille, JEANNE LANVIN; secondly, that the best of styles should be made to sell at moderate prices, as well as at the higher prices. We think we have succeeded.

In this presentation one will find everything — from severely tailored suits to three-piece costumes with blouses of rich brocade;

— from tailleur dresses of serge to matinee and tea frocks;

— from dance frocks of taffeta to dresses of 'exquisite lace;

— from coats for motoring to wraps of the finest soft woollens and silks;

— from riding habits to suits and skirts of the new sports silks and woollens.

Scores and scores of models—in fact this is the largest and most comprehensive collection of Fashions that we have ever presented for Miss 14 to 20.

Beautiful real Filet Laces at lower prices

There's a charm about real filet lace that makes it of all perhaps the most desirable of laces. There's such a multitude of uses to which it can be put that so often "makes" the costume.

3 1/4 inches wide 65c yd. 2 inches wide ... $1.25 yd.
1 3/4 inches wide ... $1.15 yd. 4 inches wide ... $3.25 yd.

So when we announce real filet lace at specially low prices it's an occasion for getting a supply. We can offer the lower prices because of the good work of our buying organization.

One specially beautiful lace is 4 3/4 inches wide. For collar and cuff sets, for ruffling, for flounces or used with tucked net for waist it lends itself delightfully. Yard, $3.95.

At $4.95 is a lace that suggests dainty summer dresses. Or for camisoles it's just the correct depth. 6 inches wide. Other widths lower-priced.

450 pairs of White Doeskin Gloves, $1.95

Our regular $3 grade

Because of a delay in shipping due to a disarrangement of freighting, these gloves arrived late. To hurry them out immediately, we are offering them—the loveliest of white doeskin gloves—at a price that is less than to-day's mill price.

Prix seam sewn, self-stitched, and fastens with pearl button. Fine soft quality, beautifully white, neat fitting, and well made. And if they become soiled, a little washing and they're as fresh as new.

1200 Yds. 50-in. Cretonnes $5 grades—$2.50 Yd.

Surprisingly good values in a beautiful quality of material and in several extremely attractive patterns.

One features a large striking bird with trailing plumage surrounded by most effective flowers.

This design is made up in three distinct color-combinations with dull gold, soft blue and black respectively as the background.

Another pattern—also carried out in three different color schemes—is centered around a graceful urn from which flowers and vines droop and hang in luxuriant growth.

The flowers are done in soft reds, blues, mauves and greens and on backgrounds of black, tan and navy.

All the colors are pleasing to the eye, and tastefully combined.
